

Below is the ad copy you can use to advertise your service. Use this on Facebook.

Few points...

- Match the ad to the headline you chose for your sales page.
- The ad is designed to be short and punchy and have the entire offer in it - as in, they know the price before they click. This is to weed out those unwilling to spend that much.
- Notice how we're talking about how they should stop wasting time and money figuring it out themselves - powerful motivators, time and money.
- Notice how we make them curious about the proof of results to encourage them to click through.

You don't have to run these ads.

By all means come up with your own.

But follow the overall idea of including the price, the money back guarantee, the motivators of time and money and that they will be getting help to build an email list.

Now pick your ad and get it running!
